

KIM NORENBERGS - STUDIO MANAGER

BIO :

Kim has over twenty-five years of management experience in the service industry across several sectors having successfully managed businesses for both herself and others. Kim strives to deliver on the client's brief whilst keeping in mind the capabilities of the business and team to provide the best project outcome and a high level of customer satisfaction. Kim is a passionate professional who is approachable and has a great eye for detail. She does not fold under pressure and when faced with a challenge strives to find a solution.

Kim provides invaluable support at SPACELAB, taking care of all day-to-day operations so the team can do what they do best - Design and Plan! Kim plays a key role in keeping operations running smoothly, putting systems in place, and increasing efficiencies across all areas at SPACELAB. Kim is often the first point of contact and is responsible for coordinating and assisting the team as well as providing excellent customer service and building client relationships.

When not at work, Kim enjoys a rural lifestyle and hopes to one day add "Beekeeping" to her list of hobbies.
